Fresh Conversations About an Ancient Message

Hatred. Anger. Revenge. Relationships. Wealth. Poverty. Meaning. Worry. Peace. What we do, what we say, what we think and the attitudes we have, all of these things are part of our everyday lives. They are critical to each of us and to our larger society.

There are plenty of opinions about these matters. Starting June 7th, First Presbyterian Church invites everyone to join a conversation about these topics every Wednesday night this summer. Our starting point each week will be what Jesus said about these topics in what is known as "The Sermon on the Mount."

Discussions will start at 6:15 and run about forty-five minutes. Bring a lawn chair or a blanket, come as early as you wish with your own picnic or brown bag supper. These picnics and conversations will take place in the church's lower garden along Riverside Avenue.

Sermon Series: Summer Light

This summer, we'll explore what Jesus said to a large group of people on a Galilean hill top one day as recorded in the Gospel of Matthew, one of the guys who was there. As we interact with this "sermon on the mount," we'll be as challenged in similar ways as Matthew and the rest of the people when they heard what Jesus had to say. Just like them, we'll get a glimpse at life as God intends.

Find Your Voice!
If you've ever wondered what it's like to sing in the Chancel Choir on Sundays but didn't want the extra time commitment, this opportunity is for you!
During the month of May, The Chancel Choir simply meets at 10:30 am each Sunday to prepare an anthem for the 11:00 am service.
No mid week rehearsal!
Anyone high school age and above with previous choral experience is welcome.
We also need soloists and small groups of musicians to offer Special Music during the months of June, July, and August at both the 8:30 & 11:00 services.
Contact Kerry Glann (kglann@bsu.edu) to indicate interest.
A sign-up sheet will be posted in the Choir Room.
