Fresh Conversations About an Ancient Message

Hatred. Anger. Revenge. Relationships. Wealth. Poverty. Meaning. Worry. Peace. What we do, what we say, what we think and the attitudes we have, all of these things are part of our everyday lives. They are critical to each of us and to our larger society.

There are plenty of opinions about these matters. Starting June 7th, First Presbyterian Church invites everyone to join a conversation about these topics every Wednesday night this summer. Our starting point each week will be what Jesus said about these topics in what is known as "The Sermon on the Mount."

Discussions will start at 6:15 and run about forty-five minutes. Bring a lawn chair or a blanket, come as early as you wish with your own picnic or brown bag supper. These picnics and conversations will take place in the church’s lower garden along Riverside Avenue.
