TalkAbout: “Looking for a Pearl of Great Price: The Search or Our Next Pastor”
By Rev. Dr. Pat Smith

We Need Your Help to Rebuild the Walls

Our campaign to "Rebuild the Walls" is off to a great start! Since the Sunday “TalkAbout” on July 1, forty-five families have responded with contributions and pledges totaling $102,045.

By now, most of you should have received a letter that fully describes the need and the importance for everyone to participate in this campaign.

We need to raise $200,000 to fully cover the total cost of approximately $600,000. The remainder is being covered by the proceeds from the land sale, as well as principal and earnings from church investments.

Fundraiser for Wild Card Cafe

We need your vinyl records! Yes, your 33’s, 45’s, and 78’s are needed. We will be selling these at the Old Washington Street Festival in September.

Start going through your records now and consider which ones to donate for a great cause!

The Community Ministry Grant team has begun compiling the information from the Individual Gifts Survey.

You still have time to turn yours in to the church office and thus have your voice heard.

There are 3 good reasons to do so.

1. In filling it out, you are recognizing that God gave you unique talents and areas of expertise that you are offering back to God to use for His purposes in our community.

2. You are letting others know of your abilities and interests so you can connect with others in the congregation with similar ones.

3. You are helping the Community Ministry Grant team discern a possible mutual ministry. To do so, we need to know what you perceive as the greatest needs of Muncie but we also need to know the talents that our congregation possesses. A mutual ministry happens at that sweet spot where our unique gifts intersect with the needs of the community.

Surveys are still available in the church office and on the information desk. If you would prefer an online version, ask Gabby to send it to you.

All members, youth and friends of the First Presbyterian Church, as well as the International Congregation are invited to show your talents and skills in the upcoming art exhibit.

Our church family wants to learn more about you, and appreciate your artistic creativity!!

Start creating and/or collecting your masterpieces so we all can enjoy them!
